Britain Believes the Sugar Duties Will Be Cut.

Thomas Toompson, a Toronto book-binder, died on a doctor's doorstep. Six hundred new rural mail routes were established during the past year in Canada.

President Wilson signed the Alas-ta railway bill authorizing the ex-tenditure of $35,000,000.

Despite the certainty that the Chan-cellor will require $40,000,000 addi-tional revenue, a strong feeling exists in Britain that the sugar duties, which produce $15,000,000, will be reduced or abolished.
